FEATURED THIS MONTH

NYC-ARTS

Thursdays, 8 p.m. on THIRTEEN; Fridays, 7 p.m. on WLIW21; Sundays, 8:30 p.m. on NJTV

NYC-ARTS.org

STARTING IN FEBRUARY, SundayArts, THIRTEEN's weekly arts and culture showcase, becomes NYC-ARTS. It also moves to a plum primetime slot—Thursday nights at 8 p.m.

Since it premiered in 2008, SundayArts has provided arts lovers in the tri-state area with an all-access pass to the New York City area's unparalleled cultural offerings—from music and dance concerts to Broadway's best, museum exhibitions, and more. New York Emmy winners Philippe de Montebello and Paula Zahn host.

"We're tremendously excited about the opportunity to relaunch SundayArts as NYC-ARTS," said Executive Producer David Horn. "Our commitment to bring viewers the best in the world of arts and culture from the tri-state area is stronger than ever, and with the move to primetime, the newly expanded website with complete cultural calendar, the NYC-ARTS mobile app, social media, and other platforms, we're able to connect more New Yorkers to the arts in more ways while broadening our reach in the community."

You'll still find your favorite SundayArts features and profiles each week on NYC-ARTS, the news with correspondent Christina Ha, and our popular Curator's Choice segments.

Connecting you with the arts on all platforms, we invite you to explore NYC-ARTS.org and NYCkidsARTS.org, where you can watch current and past shows online, and plan your week with the most complete arts and culture list in the area. For the especially social among you, connect with NYC-ARTS on Twitter, Tumblr and Facebook.

If you're around town, you'll find our free NYC-ARTS Smartphone apps by searching NYC ARTS in the iTunes App store and Android marketplace. Use your phone for up-to-the-minute listings in your immediate area and video features about many of the city's cultural gems. A podcast of NYC-ARTS is also available on iTunes.

So join us every Thursday night as the new NYC-ARTS kicks off a great night of arts and culture. Then check out our website and get out and enjoy the wonderful world of arts in New York City.

And remember, you'll still see NYC-ARTS on Sundays at 12 noon on THIRTEEN and 3 p.m. on WLIW21.

NYC-ARTS is made possible in part by First Republic Bank. Funding for NYC-ARTS is also made possible by Rosalind P. Walter, The Paul and Irma Milstein Foundation, The Philip & Janice Levin Foundation, Elise Jaffe and Jeffrey Brown, Jody and John Arnhold, and The Lemberg Foundation. This program is supported, in part, by public funds from the New York City Department of Cultural Affairs in partnership with the City Council. Additional funding provided by members of THIRTEEN.
